

Latex template to add ACM copyright information to your camera-ready manuscript:

Include the following text/code in your .tex document after the \documentclass and before the \begin{document} commands:

[For the Web Chair: from here use typewriter font or similar]

```
\documentclass{sig-alternate}
\newfont{\mycrnotice}{ptmr8t at 7pt}
\newfont{\myconfname}{ptmri8t at 7pt}
\let\crnotice\mycrnotice%
\let\confname\myconfname%
```

```
\permission{[The text to be included in this block depends on the specific option you have chosen when you compiled the ACM copyright form. Please replace the text below with the text included in the ACM rightsreview confirmation e-mail. You should have received this e-mail after submitting the ACM copyright form. This text might, e.g., look like this: Permission to make digital or hard copies of all or part of this work for personal or classroom use is granted without fee provided that copies are not made or distributed for profit or commercial advantage and that copies bear this notice and the full citation on the first page. Copyrights for components of this work owned by others than ACM must be honored. Abstracting with credit is permitted. To copy otherwise, or republish, to post on servers or to redistribute to lists, requires prior specific permission and/or a fee. Request permissions from Permissions@acm.org.}
